-Last day-

If today is my last day
My whole life was gray
I want one last time
To look at the sky

What do i do know
I want to love somehow
Am i too late?
To let go, to hate..
Myself

Ooooh my last day
Ooooh Ooooh my last day

We are in spring now
There is a lot of time to snow
If today is my last day
My whole life was gray

I could never say
But if today is my last day
Really i loved you Sofia
Stay with me, thats okay

The fifth season has come for me
I will finally be free
Like black roses turn red
Be plucked like a flower
Makes me sad

You don't know what it's like
The only thing i have half a heart
Someone told me years ago but I waited for my life a light

Oooohh my last day
Ooh oohh my last day

What i need today
Hug myself and say
Thank you and sorry
Is the end of the story

And this moment is mine

Its not the last time for you..
Life goes on despite everything
I think now you
Know what to do
