

You are hanging on
Hanging on to everywhere

But you are not really listening
You are only thinking of what she used as afterword

And all of those birds and bird houses
Would you ever end up in mind?

'Got this cuckoo's nest sitting in my chest
And it's coming out of my mind

You say that action speaks
But you are obsessed with words

The problem is a proper now
And it spits it's issues outwards

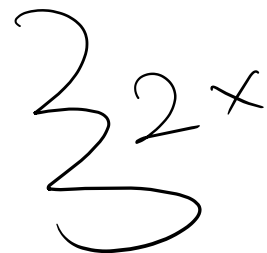

Out of all those words and wordness'
Would you ever think yours would mean most?

Pierced through my chest
Ripped of my heart when I was obsessed
And it's coming out of my mind

---

I don't want you, but I need you
I need you to leave this town

I don't want you
But I need you to get lost and not be found

'Cause you fell right through the door
Saying "lover don't love me no more"
Felt like sleeping on thorn

Just keep me wake till I'm gone
But lover don't love me no more
